GLOBOSITIES.

March came in this spring like a lamb and went out like a sore-tailed lion.

May Day—the 1st of May, will be celebrated by a big dance at Condon. Look out for posters.

The masons had a meeting at Condon Saturday evening, and afterwards partook of an excellent supper at Maddock's hotel.

Forty-one new subscriptions this week is not very discouraging to this official intelligence foundry. Still there's room for more.

J. H. Downing this week purchased a large bill of dry goods from a Mr. Murphy, travelling salesman for a large Portland house.

Owing to lack of space, we are compelled to hold over an interesting communication from our Beecher Flat correspondent until next issue.

Hon. J. P. Wager of Portland, the attorney, informs us that he cannot make it suit to come to Condon before April 11th—the date circuit court convenes.

A roasting turnout of the followers of democracy are expected at the primaries here Saturday. It is hoped enough of them can be drummed out to get five delegates at least, even if they can't read.

Stock interests in this section were never in better condition for years than in the present season. Horses, cattle and sheep are in good flesh, and the grass is excellent for this season of the year.

Enraged contributor—Your proof-reader made nonsense out of that article of mine this morning, sir! outrageous nonsense, sir! Editor—By George! I couldn't make anything out of it all; I'll raise that fellow's wages.—Judge.

Patsy Connelly, brother of our Tim, arrived here Monday, fresh from Ould Ireland, and expects to try his luck in the "Woolly West." He is "down on" the slowness with which trains run in this country, being nine days on the way from New York.

Katie, he said timidly, "I have allowed myself to hope that you regard me as something more than a friend." "George," she answered softly, with half-averted face, "you—you are away off." And George understood. He came nearer.—Texas Sitings.

In our mention last week of Rev. Wise's visit to Pendleton, it read that he attended the "Congressional" Sunday School Institute. It should have read "Congregational." This is only another proof that even the greatest of men are not proof against making mistakes.

The clip of wool this season will be in better condition than for several years past, and the yield will be abundant and of good quality. Wool will not begin to go to market yet for some time, but the Dalles warehousemen are preparing to handle the largest clip of any season.

See the new ad of the Union Pacific. This Ry. company is now selling through tickets cheaper than ever before, and their accommodation is also better than ever before. The Union Pacific is the safest, best and quickest route to take for all points East, North and South.

The Condon Grange had an enthusiastic meeting here Saturday, many strangers from a distance being present. Eleven new members were received, and a special meeting is called for April 8th to initiate them. At the rate the Condon Grange has been growing, it will soon be the strongest in the county.

Horse raisers will find out something to their advantage by reading the advertisements of H. C. Strickland and L. C. Hoffman, whose horses are recognized as being among the very best in the country. P. A. Fry requests us to state that "Hastings, the man-eater," and "Rattler, the scrub," will also be on hand this season at his ranch on Beecher Flat.

State Senator Chas. Hilton was in town several days this week, and was present at the republican convention Saturday. He doesn't say much about it, but we are to believe he would accept the nomination again for joint senator. State Grange Lecturer Wm. Holder (Rep) also has an optic skinned for this honorable position and he wants it bad, they say.

The Princeton News says: The Ochoo Review is not the boss of the present existing county court of this county. The reader may be surprised (?) to learn that this statement is a fact, but the reason is easy. The "writ" that have been taken before His Honor, Judge Sumner, have been created on the ground that the "recorder" is not a citizen of the State.

J. T. Murphy who had been working for Judge Mariner at Blalock, was examined before Justice Ebi at Arlington Wednesday as to his mental condition. We have not yet heard the result. Mr. Murphy is a victim of unfortunate circumstances, having been badly injured in the head several years ago, the effects from which he was confined in the asylum two or three times before.

It is given out that a certain lady not far from here, whose husband had fallen into the habit of coming home tipsy at night, decided to try frightening him for a cure. She dressed up in a satanic masquerade and met him in the moonlight, "Come to me, I am the devil," said she in sepulchral tones. "That so?" replied he; "shake, old boy; I'm yer brother-in-law. I married yer sister!"

Rev. Wise returned home Saturday, accompanied by Rev. Daniel Staver, a very able and eloquent minister from Portland. These reverend gentlemen began Monday evening with the first of a series of meetings at Condon, which will probably last a couple of weeks if the same interest is taken that has been so far. Rev. Clapp is expected here this week to assist in the good work.

Dr. Paul Grant of Portland, representing his line of excellent medicinal remedies, under the trade mark of "O. W. R.," was in town Saturday. The doctor recognizing the Grons's position as having four times the circulation of any other paper in the county, has placed his advertisement on the first page of this great "Civilizer." It will appear for the first in the issue of April 8th. Notice it.

The Niles & Vinson marble works, of Walla, does the largest retail business of any house in the marble line north of San Francisco. They have received orders for a carload of monuments and head stones to be placed in the cemeteries of Boise City, Idaho, during the month of May this year. This firm made a shipment of monuments to Dayton this week, which was the largest ever received there in a single shipment. A Mistake Corrected.

BEECHER FLAT, Mch 28th. ED. GLOBE:—Kindly allow me to state through your columns that the job put up on me at the Mayville primaries on the 19th, was a most insulting and cowardly piece of work. The hoodlums who nominated me for constable knew that I would not accept that or any other nomination. I feel that it was done to cast a slur upon me, the scrubs claiming that I was seeking the nomination for representative, which is false in every sense of the term. If any one doubts this, I can refer them to some of the most honorable and prominent men in the county, who will substantiate my statements. What makes it look all the more cowardly is that I was not at the primaries, but was at home with my sick son while my wife was attending the funeral of our daughter, Mrs. Blakely; and it looks pretty low down to thus insult a man when his home is overshadowed by a cloud of sorrow and sadness. I am indeed sorry to think I have neighbors who would get down to such little business. It is putting it pretty strong, but I feel that nothing else will do the subject justice so well as to state that any one who says I am seeking office of any kind, is an unadulterated liar. I. A. HENDERSON.

Republican Convention.

- For Representative—L. J. Goodrich. For Clerk—Jay P. Lucas. For Sheriff—R. M. Johnson. For Treasurer—Herbert Halstead. For Commissioner—P. C. Martin. For Assessor—H. C. Dodson. For School Supt.—W. W. Kennedy. For Surveyor—Lee Stewart. For Coroner—Dr. J. J. Nicklin.

The republican county convention met at Condon Saturday last. Delegates from the various precincts were present as follows:

- Arlington—A. A. Jayne, J. A. Thomas, A. B. Vaughn, S. O. Hawson and E. O. Tobey. Blalock—L. J. Goodrich, J. E. David, Woodland—B. T. Snell and T. G. Woodland. Condon—Geo. Tatom, R. W. Cooke and Al Henshaw. Ferry Canyon—Ralph Fronan. Matney—F. M. Pliter, J. E. Downer. Idea—J. E. Downer, proxy. Lone Rock—R. M. Johnson and Geo. Perry. Trail Fork—Alex Hardie, Ed. Smith. Mayville—Geo. Duket, H. R. Ramsay. Butte Creek—F. W. Royal, B. Kelsay and W. W. Kennedy. Crown Rock—John Perin, J. W. Lyle. Rowe Creek—P. C. Martin and Harvey Martin.

The convention organized by electing L. J. Goodrich temporary chairman and F. W. Loyal secretary. Committees on credentials and order of business were appointed and convention adjourned to 1 p. m., when committees reported and permanent organization was had by electing A. A. Jayne chairman and F. W. Royal secretary.

Ticket nominated was as follows: Representative, L. J. Goodrich, by acclamation. Clerk, J. P. Lucas by acclamation. Sheriff, R. M. Johnson. Treasurer, Herbert Halstead, by acclamation. School Supt., W. W. Kennedy, by acclamation.

Commissioner, P. C. Martin. Assessor, H. C. Dodson. Surveyor, T. L. Stewart, by acclamation.

Coroner, Dr. Nicklin, by acclamation. The principal struggle was for sheriff and assessor. R. M. Johnson received 17 and Livingston 16 votes for sheriff. For assessor, David Mason and Mr. Shepley were spoken of, but both withdrew in favor of H. C. Dodson.

Two ballots were necessary to decide the nomination for commissioner, P. C. Martin, Alex Hardie, W. F. Settlemier and R. M. Johns being named.

Personnel of the candidates: L. J. Goodrich is a prosperous and intelligent farmer of the north end of the county, near Blalock, and his party could not have made a better selection.

P. C. Martin of Rowe Creek, is also a practical and successful farmer, and is a good selection.

R. M. Johnson is a farmer and stock-raiser of Lone Rock, and a competent man, weighing over 200 lbs.

J. P. Lucas—well you know all about him, so treat him accordingly.

H. C. Dodson is a farmer and stockman living near Clem, and the party could not have put up a stronger man.

Herbert Halstead, our popular young merchant, is the proper person to handle your $, and there is probably not a man in the county who will poll a heavier vote than Herbert said in June.

W. W. Kennedy's qualifications are so well and favorably known that it is useless for comment on his part.

Lee Stewart is a stockman of West Fork and has some knowledge of surveying.

Dr. Nicklin will sit on a corpse with as much dignity as any man in the county, and if elected, will fill the important office of coroner with proper decorum if you know what that means.

W. W. Steiwer, F. W. Royal, Jay P. Lucas and A. A. Jayne were elected delegates to the state convention.

A. A. Jayne was elected chairman of the county central committee, the list of members of which we have not yet received.

Arlington Antonations.

Ed Miller, the jeweler, has leased the Jordan house and will enter upon his new duty as landlord next week.

C. A. Franks, we understand, has rented his ranch on Willow creek to Mr. Squires, who will try his luck in the cattle business.

Among the many visitors to our town this week from a distance we noticed Judge Denny of Portland, ex-Gov. Z. F. Moody, Senator Chas. Hilton and Mrs. Rinehart and Moody of The Dalles, J. H. Downing and Sheriff Wilcox of Condon, Jno. Madden and Ed Copner of Lone Rock.

It seems to be a settled fact in this end of the county that Jay P's opponent in the race for clerk will be none other than our Clarence A. Shurtie, the popular book-keeper for J. W. Smith. Mr. Shurtie no doubt would make an efficient and competent officer. He has managed Mr. Smith's enormous business in the most successful manner for several years, and his many friends think if he gets the nomination he will run at a rate that will be amazing to some of 'em. Still it is very evident that a better man could not be placed in the office than the present clerk, and it is very probable he will "git thar" again with a handsome "Majority."

Fine Horses Coming.

Edward Palmer of Ajax, this county, has just purchased from the noted horse importing concern, Dr. Valerius & Co., of Watertown, Wis., two of the best-blooded stallions that they had in their extensive stables. "Elite," 5985, is a French stallion, weight 2000 pounds, as black as coal, is only 4 years old and has wonderful style and action. The other one, "Duke Darley," 4341, an imported Clydesdale stallion, a grand-son of "Darley," 222, the best Clyde stallion Scotland ever knew. "Duke Darley" is not quite as large as "Elite," but he is a grand horse in every way. It is really a pity that these wonderful stallions did not arrive in this vicinity three weeks ago. Still such superior stallions as these we have no doubt will yet get a large patronage, and Mr. Palmer is fortunate in securing these fine animals. The horses left Watertown, Wis., on March 25th and will arrive at Arlington about April 4th.

To the Public.

I respectfully announce to the public that I keep constantly on hand a large quantity of the very best quality of flour at my flouring mill, which I am now selling at $4.50 per barrel. In exchange I will give 38 lbs of flour for one bushel of good, merchantable wheat. J. A. CARM, Olex, Or.

Germany Gems.

The estate of John Lakey, deceased, has been appraised at $500. John V. Martin is the administrator.

Gene Gilman has sold his extensive stock and land interests here, and will leave soon for the Willamette valley, where he will try his luck farming on an extensive scale, aided by the earth's surface.

"Wild flowers in bloom, of all kinds and descriptions." How very poetical and original, too, the above sounds. We hope no one will be so unkind now as to remark that we are "about as much as a poet as a sheep is a goat."

The mud which we delicately alluded to with a fatherly feeling about a month ago hasn't all subsided yet, thus furnishing the subject for this valuable bit of intelligence. Our farmers have not been able to cultivate their excellent farms on account of it.

Some "Germany" people went to Condon Saturday last, and all say they were greatly surprised at the rapid and substantial growth of Gilliam's gay capital during the last year. As they are all "good republicans," they took in the the convention while there.

It is a very true and trite saying that "Everybody can't be suited." In view of this fact, we will say that just now we are having over-abundance of rain. But doubtless these same showers are highly appreciated in the dryer portions of the country, where it usually is so dry that the inhabitants can't even lick a postage stamp. FRISKY.

Lone Rock Rumbblings.

Politix up here is pretty quiet, being like a jug handle—all on one side.

Morgan Ward went over to Fossil Saturday to attend quarterly meeting, and returned home Sunday.

We understand Otho Ward has lost a good many sheep this spring, by coming in too close contact with coyotes.

Owing to their very productive real estate being too wet for plowing, some of our industrious farmers are becoming very tired of resting.

Last Tuesday Doc Brown sold his Henshaw ranch at Lone Rock to Jas. Bennett, consideration $2,500. This is one of the prettiest locations in Lone Rock valley, and Jim is of just the right sort to enjoy it.

There are three matrimonial engagements in this man's town—two of them being delayed on account of shortage of age, and the third we presume owing to too much age. But they all "keep staying" just the same.

At this writing, the hills about here are robed in white, and have been for several days. March dawned upon us like a lamb; and the howling winds which accompany its departure sound a little like the lion part of the saying.

Bob Johnson, Geo. Perry, Dan Rinehart and Chas. Cole all came home from the county seat Sunday in a big snow storm, with the star spangled banner on their heads and a little joker of "Condon's Best" under the seat, while their jaws were working vigorously with "Black-jack" chewing gum. We're all democrats up here, you know, and of course they don't have much to say to us. COWBOY.

"Glass Houses."

MAYVILLE, March 28th. ED. GLOBE:—No doubt some of the readers of your spicy little paper will remember that nearly a year ago a correspondent from this section made mention of a marriage that occurred "not 1000 miles from Mayville," and spoke in rather uncomplimentary terms of the young man leaving creditors in the lurch etc., which statements were mostly incorrect. Some of the friends of the young married couple did not appreciate it very much, and even remarked that possibly the correspondent might sometime meet with a similar experience. It seems that their predictions in this respect have been correct. "Not 1000 years ago, and also not many thousand miles from Mayville," this same correspondent got married, and it seems he was obliged to borrow spondoolix to get home on; and if reports are true, he also has not been any too prompt in paying his debts, board bills, etc. I regret having to mention these things, and would not have done so, but for the reason that I think "people who live in glass houses should not throw stones." Begging pardon for thus intruding on the GLOBE, I subscribe myself, J. P. P.

A Lost Boy.

Last fall, about October 15th, Joseph Frensteld, my step-son, a Swede, aged 21, and myself left Montana for the John Day valley in Oregon. Somehow we became separated and I do not know whether he ever arrived at his destination or not, nor do I have any idea of his whereabouts. Any information regarding him will be gratefully received by me. PAT GARYBY, Condon, Oregon.

Extra Good Horses For Sale. I have at my ranch on Rock creek a number of good, extra heavy horses that are being fed preparatory for spring market.
